New Children's Book Series by Comic Artist, Lynn Johnston!

Lynn Johnston, creator of the beloved comic strip For Better or For Worse®, is proud to present her new series of children's picture books. Introducing, Alottabotz!

Alottabotz is written and illustrated by Lynn in her unique, family-friendly style. Charming characters, sweet gestures, funny faces, interesting inventions, vibrant colours and spaceships galore! This timeless series is sure to delight your favourite youngster and those who are young-at-heart!

The stories revolve around Timothy Bot—a robot boy who has just moved to a new town. The Botshop, the first book of the series, has Tim and his grandfather working together on a special project. The second book, Marvellous Things, follows Tim as he settles in to his new town. In the third book, A Dog With No Name, there is an incident that results in Timbot coming up with the perfect name for his pet.

I tried to retire. I really did. But after a year or so of bumbling about, I realized I had to do something creative with my time! I love robots! Robot characters are fun to draw and stories about them are fun to create. I hope you enjoy my new books. ~ Lynn
